THESE HANDS . . .

FOREWORD . . .

As we look back upon the past three years, we are bound by the experiences which have led us to our goal. Once, a lady in white was our dream; now it is a reality. This we owe to our Alma Mater, where we formed the foundation for our dreams.

When we leave our school, we will take with us not only the cap, but the spirit of all those here, as if each one's qualities were placed in our own hands. Each of us has truly prospered by hands that guide, hands that work, hands that gained, hands that follow, and hands that enjoy.

May these hands be significant of the first Great One who spread so much with the touch of His Hand. To us, who have seen the depths of suffering, it portrays a Hand that heals. So each of us will try to work through that first Hand that gave -- in hopes of making the world a better place as we pass through.

Now, as we represent our school and profession, it will be with these hands . . .

WOMAN'S MEDICAL COLLEGE OF PENNSYLVANIA
PHILADELPHIA 29, PA.
June 5, 1964

Dear Mom and Dad,

As we look back over these three years -- at times and at other times unbearably long, we wish to pause just a few of the many thoughts that fill our hearts. It seems but a short time ago you brought your daughter for the first of many trips through the a day we know you remember. From there we were a profession we chose. Much has happened since then and we have respects. We have grown emotionally, Intelknown a life of both joy and sadness. Our satisfaction and rewards of learning and in need. As we see the path behind us all we look ahead to the path before us.

Yes, Mom and Dad, we have come far from alone. We are deeply grateful "desperately" were always supplied important. your guidance and co-moments are deeply appreciated. With these hands we write love we hold in our hearts that we dedicate to you, our

1961

God, loving Father,
Be with us this capping night
Keep all our paths both true and right
Teach, help and guide us
Always beside us
Heart, hands, we give Thee all tonight.

Guide us as we strive to learn
Patients' welfare our concern
Visions of our dreams come true
When we change to white from blue

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE PLEDGE

*I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly:
To pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully.
I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous,
and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug.
I will do all in my power to elevate the standard of my profession,
and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping,
and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession
With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work,
And devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.*

*Dear kind and loving Father, Please hear my prayer and plea,
Show me the path to follow, To lead my life for Thee,
Guide me in the steps I take, On the rocky road ahead,
And when I stop and falter, By faith let me be led,
We are so very human, In all we say and do,
We forget our many blessings, And the thanks we owe to You,
We fill our lives with little chores, And scurry here and there,
That's when You step right in, And give us a cross to bear.
For only then do we stop awhile, Suffering in our grief,
You work in such mysterious ways, To strengthen our belief,
So Father hear my prayer, I need your help tonight,
I need Your guidance and Your love, To meet the dawn's bright light,
And when I start the morn anew, I'll stop throughout the day,
As I bow my head in prayer, These are the words I'll say,
To me You gave a life to live, To use as I see fit,
Now, I ask Your guidance, In the way I shall form it,
No matter what I say or do, Your help I'll always need,
Whatever path I follow, Shall be one I know You lead,
In that way I can't go wrong, For your light will be my guide,
And when the road is stormy, In You I will abide,
Thank-you God for all you've done, You lit a tiny spark,
It shone so very brightly, And led me from the dark.*

ALMA MATER

Time ever Flowing
Bids us be Going,
Dear Alma Mater far from Thee.
God watching o'er us,
Our pledge before us,
Never forgotten shalt thou be.

Life's Duties call us,
What e'er befall us,
Lamps shining brightly we will bear.
Keeping our brother,
Thou our dear mother,
Proudly the cap of Thy school we wear.

Thy peaceful halls
Memory recalls,
Woman's medical ever true
Will ever bind us
To those left behind us
What e'er we are, we owe to you.
